

RUSH NEUROBEHAVIORAL CENTER

Building on the strengths of children, teens, and young adults

“Understanding Today’s Students” Library Lecture Series

Presented by RNBC at the Chicago Public Library’s Lincoln Park Branch

~ Save the Date ~

Thursday, September 30, 2010 @ 6:30 pm

The next presentation in the series is:

“The Organized Child: Building Executive Functions”

Presented by Georgia Bozeday, Ed.D

This presentation will help parents of children with organization, time management and problem solving issues. Strategies that support the development of Executive Function skills will be discussed.

Dr. Bozeday, is the Director of Educational Services at Rush NeuroBehavioral Center (RNBC), a Department of Pediatrics & Psychiatry at Rush University Medical Center.

Who should attend?

This lecture is tailored for you if your child has:

- Difficulty with organization
- Late or incomplete homework assignments
- Struggles with study skills
- Problems prioritizing

Parents, teachers and the general public are invited to attend these complimentary informational sessions.

Chicago Public Library Lincoln Park Branch

1150 W. Fullerton Avenue, Chicago

Phone: (312) 744-1926

Lectures are free and open to the public. Reservations are not necessary.

CPDU credits are available to teachers upon request.

Visit www.RNBC.org or call 847.933.9339 for further details.

City of Chicago
Richard M. Daley
Mayor

Chicago
Public
Library

Please call for accommodations:
312.747.4252 (Voice)
312.747.4066 (TTY)

